Property Description

This spacious property is surrounded by 2 million-year-old limestone and nestled in the hillside with 270-degree views of the mountains, the river valley, and the ocean to the south. Two large ensuite bedrooms flank the spacious great room that features a gorgeous kitchen and comfortable entertainment center. There is also an additional flex room that can serve as an office or guest bedroom. Each room in this substantial home is isolated for privacy. Both of the master ensuite bedrooms have private terraces that present uniquely beautiful views. And the main ocean-view terrace is a spectacular space to come together for meals and games overlooking the infinity pool below. The landscaped gardens show love and dedication to beautiful species like the Bismarck palm, colorful tropical plants, and many varied types of fruit trees. The home features extensive storage possibilities including a large secure storage room.
