Property Description

For the nature lovers who want privacy this lot is perfect for you! This property line borders a river that runs all year and has its own swimming hole! Having a river this close to your property provides an animal corridor for animals to move along. Located in Phase 1 in Tres Rios this is a very unique property with legal water! This property gets consistent great breezes all day on the property and the property is very usable. This would be a perfect property to build for privacy and take advantage of the river for your garden. This property is 5 mins from the main hwy, 10 minutes to all of the great restaurants the area has to offer and only 15 mins to the natural beaches the southern zone is famous for.
