Property Description

In our neighbourhood, easy access and near total tranquility usually don't mix – not in the red-hot real estate market of Costa Ballena. BUT there are still a few hidden gems where you can find a peaceful, quiet and nature-infused environment hidden from the hassle and bustle but just a few minutes' drive away from all the services, amenities and attractions you can imagine. Such is the case with this piece of land, located in the quiet community of TRES RIOS right next door to the tourist and expat hub of OJOCHAL. This lot fronts a paved public road and is accessed via a nicely prepared internal driveway. A steady but not too steep drive will bring you to the first plantel, located on your right about ½ way up to the top of the hill. Continuing up, the driveway swings to the left and terminates at the second plantel which stretches across the hilltop. The plantels are flat and offer beautiful views of the surrounding hills, jungles and the coastal mountains which rise up to 1,300 metres (4,300 feet) above the Pacific shores.
