Property Description

At a time when the local Costa Rica real estate inventory is super low, this new-to-the-market two bed/two full bath condo located in the seaside community of Las Palmas within Playas del Coco is an ideal opportunity for those seeking a holiday rental investment property, vacation home or a new forever home. Just a few years ago this beautiful two story condo was stripped and completely renovated and decorated with a new kitchen, two new bathrooms, home decor, all new furnishings, appliances, ac units, new closets, light fixtures, ceiling fans and much more. The home is super clean, fresh and is move in ready. It shows pride of ownership and is well maintained without ever being rented. Owners are selling to upgrade to a larger home with growing family members. With just over 825 sq ft of inside living space, and various balconies for outside enjoyment, one can enjoy a relaxed organic lifestyle amongst the lovely well kept gardens and pathways.
