Property Description

The apartment is in a condominium tower very well located near the center of San José and the main shopping and study centers. It has a spacious dining room with a balcony from where you can get a beautiful view of the city, especially at night since it is on the sixth floor. The open-style kitchen integrated into the dining room with beautiful and modern furniture with white quartz countertops. The main room has a closet and a private bathroom with fine granite finishes, the secondary rooms share a modern bathroom with good shelves. Natural light and ventilation are part of the charm of the apartment, which also has amenities such as swimming pools for adults and children, a clubhouse for celebrations, a basketball court and beautiful garden.

areas. The furniture is of good quality and good taste. Magnificent for investment as it receives an 8.1% return since it rents very well.
