Property Description

This Luxury Home, The Cartago, was designed with a wealth of features reflecting the richness of the Costa Rican coast and combines Old World charm with the modern comforts of today. An immediate sense of grandeur is created by the handsome exterior elevation. It has red barrel-tiled roof, stucco finish, and its repetitive arches are representative of authentic Guatemaltecan architecture. Two Master suites on the main floor with an expanded living room. Both adjoin the two car garage. The third master bedroom is an even grander version of the two beautiful master suites on the first level. It's spacious balcony overlooks the infinity pool, surrounding gardens, Punta Dominicalito and the ocean beyond. This split floor plan allows the occupants of each of three master bedroom suites to enjoy maximum privacy. In the Estate, indoor and outdoor living is one and the same. The designer finishes throughout the house reflect the developers attention to detail and standard of excellence in all aspects of the home.
