Property Description

is a 10 room boutique hotel which is currently part of the Hotel Mono Azul administration and portfolio. The owners have listed both properties and would sell them independently or as a package. This section of the hotel, located on a prime commercial corner was the most recent addition to the Mono Azul and is located across the street allowing for a fully autonomous operation and project at an amazing price.The property, which measures just over 1600 sq. meters in size, offers up 10 luxury villas, the largest and highest prices which the hotel Mono Azul currently offers its clients, a large commercial area currently being leased to a spa operator and a 2 level tower home which could be an owners house or continue as a hotel rental property. great high visibility corner location, private pool, room for expansion and a mixed use commercial, residential and hotel compound. Finding this quality construction, location and PRICE in Manuel Antonio is nearly impossible making this one of the most unique opportunities in the market place.
