Property Description

"CASA COCOBOLO, Your Private Sanctuary 10 minutes from Downtown Uvita Casa Cocobolo is a luxurious four-bedroom "jungle modern" house designed to maximize the panoramic views of tropical jungle, sea, and sky. Set in the hills directly above the center of Uvita, the house offers not only dramatic views of the Whale's Tail, Caño Island, and Isla Ballena but also wonderful non-stop breezes that make the extra expense of air conditioning unnecessary. Located conveniently close to the amenities of town, however in a blissfully peaceful and private setting, surrounded by trees, tropical flowering plants, and abundant wildlife. The graceful contemporary design, which was inspired by the architecture of Marcio Kogan, provides a wonderful juxtaposition and backdrop to the natural setting. The house is filled with custom-designed hand-crafted furniture. Costa Rican Guanacaste wood from a storm-felled tree provides richness and warmth contrasting against the polished concrete floors and the clean white Silestone and stainless steel surfaces.
