Property Description

This beautiful property features all of the components most buyers are seeking: ocean view, pool, river frontage, lush rainforest setting, wildlife, privacy, land with expansion opportunities, easy access, minutes to the beach, and close to many of Southern Costa Rica's most popular attractions. The home currently serves as a private residence but it can easily function as a vacation rental for investors looking for desirable income-producing properties. The main level includes two bedroom suites on opposite sides, separated by a kitchen with walk-in pantry and a spacious living room that opens up to a large covered balcony. The ocean view master suite includes a balcony, a walk-in closet, and a luxurious bathroom with a jacuzzi tub. The second upstairs bedroom features an elevated rainforest view, a large closet, and a private bathroom.
