Property Description

Casa Aura, "the goddess of cool breezes" is a luxurious 2,700 square foot home features some of the prettiest views in Southern Costa Rica. From your private terrace, you can see unobstructed ocean sunset views, as well as lush jungle views. This luxury home includes an outdoor entertaining area with a pool, a master suite with an outdoor stone tub, and high-quality wooden furniture. This house is ideal for your next family home or a vacation rental. This new custom built 2-story home features both practical and luxurious finishings. It's insulated with Durock flooring, and stunning Turkish travertine flooring tiles accent the house. Ceiling fans, French doors, and windows allow the gentle outdoor breeze to circulate throughout the house. They also help bring natural light inside. You can enter the main or upper level of the home from the carport area. The pool level is accessible by walking down a flight of wooden steps.
