Property Description

Zoned Mixed Use residential and commercial (ZMRC) this 702m², property could be refurbished as a hotel, converted into offices, condos or apartments with a restaurant or restored as an elegant home. Located just north of Downtown San Jose, this property is located in the historic district of Barrio Amon; a picturesque neighborhood known for its old colonial style buildings and beautiful mansions. The Barrio Amon neighborhood was established in 1892 by wealthy coffee barons who built elegant homes. Today, these beautiful old buildings are private residences, hotels, restaurants, offices and art galleries and comprise one of the most photogenic regions of the city. Still retaining its original charm, it was remodeled in 1993 to become a bed and breakfast; operating until late 2017.
