Property Description

Motivated Seller- Ultra Luxurious Custom Home in Exclusive Private Community - Price Reduced from $2,875,000 to $2,100,000. Located in Santa Ana in a very private and small gated community, this residence was built with peace and tranquility in mind. Finished at the end of 2009 by a highly recognized architectural firm, the house is too beautiful not to see. The beautiful high polished bronze front door is the first of many unique details you will notice when visiting this home. Upon entering, the large foyer will lead you along a spectacular hallway of mirrors and take you to the living room/entertainment area which is light and bright and because of the floor to ceiling glass walls and the high beamed ceilings. The living room can be opened up to the social areas by opening the glass walls and is spacious enough for large gatherings. The lush tropical gardens and resort like salt water pool add to the ambiance and create a resort like feeling.
