Property Description

There are reasons why this is one of Ojochal's best rental properties. The home is beautifully built, surrounded by peace and quiet, close to beaches and restaurants and in the middle of an area known for a variety of adventurous and soul filling activities. The access road is wide, well maintained and easily traveled. If you want to live in it yourself, you will quickly discover why others have found it so appealing. The impeccable workmanship includes vaulted teak ceilings, granite counter tops, french doors and oversized windows that open the home to beautiful views and fresh breezes. Ceiling fans add a cooling touch and the home is pre-wired for air conditioning units if you choose to install them. Quality furnishings throughout the home are included. There is reliable water, and a water back-up storage system ensures you will never be without water during system repairs and maintenance.
