Property Description

This is an oasis of peace surrounded by fruit trees, manicured lawns, flowers and your own private access to a river minutes from the city but miles from stress. The home is a split level with a bedroom/office off the main entrance and half bath. Walk down six steps to the main living area with over sized window that bring in natural light. Enjoy city and mountain views from every window on this level. Here you will find a dining room, with arched doorways that lead into a living room with fire place and a great room with a terrace. There is a full over sized bath designed for wheelchair accessibility and a open space that can be easily converted into a sixth bedroom. You will also enjoy access to the garden from the great room. There is also an eat in kitchen and laundry room on this level. On the second level you find an inviting open space ideal for quiet reading with a terrace and again amazing view of the mountains and beyond.
