Property Description

15-Acre oasis in the mountains near Quepos/Manuel Antonio Casa Tranquilla is situated in the mountains of Costa Rica near Manuel Antonio/Quepos on the central Pacific Coast. This 15-acre property is surrounded by rainforest, amazing mountain views, natural springs, abundant wildlife, tropical palms and fruit trees, flowing rivers, and is in walking distance to waterfalls with swimming holes. The property includes a 3,000 sq ft home with 3 master bedroom suites each with its own bathroom and sitting areas, an open kitchen for hosting guests, and beautiful teak and natural wood features. This is a tropical retreat that boasts a huge new outdoor pool and landscaping with stone wall and fire pit. This gorgeous property is ideal for a buyer looking for a place with a remote feel, but still not too far away from civilization. The town of Quepos is under a 20-minute drive away with access to a regional airport, full service marina, modern hospital, large grocery stores, fine dining, and shopping.
