Property Description

Casa Bosque Tropical is an absolute beauty! Starting with the elegant home, to the 3.2 perfect acres, to the dramatic west-facing, white-water, wave crashing views....you just have to see this property to absorb this description! Two-bedrooms, one bath with a full kitchen and fabulous organic ceiling, natural light, this home is nestled in the rainforest with an orientation of the Pacific Big Blue! Only one mile from the main coastal highway (Costanera) or a two minute drive, access to this property is fast and high quality. As you enter the property you are greeted by a private electronic entrance gate providing exceptional security. Once inside the grounds you will enjoy a playground of highly useable land that has been meticulously landscaped with some of the finest natural plants in Costa Rica. Allow your imagination to explore the grounds to enjoy today, or for future expansion. As you drive along the entrance road, which has landscape lighting for the evening hours, you arrive to the care-takers home.
