Property Description

Perfectly located hotel for sale in Bahia Ballena within walking distance to Ballena Marine Park, and one of Mother Natures creations, the kilometer long sand bar that looks like the tail of a whale, and known as the "Whales Tail". Also happens to be where the northern and southern hemisphere whales come a breed every year. This exotic location is positioned along the Costa Ballena in the southern pacific region of Costa Rica, which is very rich in flora and fauna. Hotel has 6 comfortable rooms with A/C, cable t.v., wifi and private bath with capacity of up to 30 people. There is also a commercial space fronting the public road that is currently being operated as a health and beauty spa, which could easily be converted to other commercial operations taking advantage the main road frontage leading to the main park entrance.
