Property Description

Perched high on a ridge with expansive valley, mountain, and ocean views is where you will find this three bedroom home. Located on a dead end road for privacy and conveniently located 15 minutes to the city of San Isidro and 30 minutes to the surf and sand of Dominical beach. Enjoy cool breezes and some of the most colorful sunsets at a elevation around 2,000 feet. The main building is wide open where you will find the kitchen, dining, and living room. There is head high wall that separates the master bedroom from the rest of the house however an internal wall can easily be built for additional privacy. With exotic wood ceilings and purple heart wood posts you will love the feel of this house. Adjacent to the full bath you will find a outdoor tub and zen garden where you can really relax and star gaze. From the main building you will walk on a cemented breezeway to a newly constructed 2 story covered deck that gives you elevated views and an outdoor sink, prep area, and BBQ area perfect to entertain guests.
