Property Description

Artsy, eclectic, rustic open air rancho restaurant bar that serves food cooked from a brick oven. There are 3 cabins with 2 bedrooms each and with their own baths, and several rooms within the two rancho buildings that make this one of Ojochal's more interesting places to get some good food and beverage and great ambiance with a unique mix of locals and foreigners. Property is 2.5 acres with a nice forested feel, a beautiful slow moving creek stocked with over 2 lb tilapia, and walkways leading down to the rivers edge. Conveniently located within walking distance to the heart of Ojochal, and within close proximity of several pristine beaches, and also the Ballena Marine National Park. If your looking to start a business, and enjoy art, music, meditation, yoga, and cooking, look no further, as this one is ready for the aggressive business person to take over. Owner just left for his home country of Germany, and uncertain when he will return, as his fathers health is not so well.
