Property Description

As you step into this authentically Costa Rican crafted home, you forget you are just ten minutes away from the commercial area of nearby Quepos. This country gem comes with Three bedrooms and 2 full bathrooms. The home stands at just 2000 square feet. Its features include detailed furnishings, including custom furniture and the artisan touch of Costa Rican woodmakers. The natural elements of the home's interior design blends well against the backdrop of its verdant surroundings. Constructed in 2006, the home has been enjoyed by only one previous owner. This rare find is fully furnished and ready. The land is one quarter of an acre, and is abundant with various types of local fruit trees. The 3-tiered fountain adds a charming touch as you stroll through the courtyard. A special feature of the property is its cabina, or guest room, complete with a full bathroom. Take a look today and see why this jewel is perfect for a first time buyer to experience all that Costa Rica has to offer.
