Property Description

If you like the idea of owning a simple, well built home with a Costa Rican touch offering dynamic views looking down on a peninsula with a world class breaking wave that is many of our locals better kept secrets, this 2 bedroom 2 bath home with infinity edge pool is the perfect match! Access is within minutes from the coast highway, conveniently located near several excellent beaches and small communities like Dominical and Uvita. The home is perched up at a comfortable altitude offering constant breezes, besides the big view looking down on the peninsula, the home also offers an in line southern coastline view down Hermosa Beach and out on to the sand bar point known as the "Whales Tail" Property is loaded with mature fruit trees to include Mangos, bananas, citrus of all varieties, and many other exotic types. There are additional building sites for future expansion, and the entire site is very private from any neighbors.
