Property Description

Price Reduced by $10,000 - Great Buy!! Unique home in San Isidro de El General in a nice neighborhood only 5 minutes from the center of town. The construction is cement block with a total area of 2,700 square feet. Most of the interior ceilings and trim are made from exotic hardwoods and tile floors are featured throughout the home. The house has an interesting layout with a sunken living room and many arched windows and doors. The property is in excellent condition and was remodeled and well cared for by the current owner. There are a total of 5 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms. The master bedroom has it's own private bath, clothes closet and two large arched windows, one with a view out into the south side orchid nursery. There are 2 smaller bedrooms that share a bath and another room currently used as an office. The 5th bedroom has it's own private bath and entrance from the inside as well as the outside which could be used for a renter or live-in domestic worker's quarters.
