Property Description

Imagine owning your own beach hotel in scenic and secluded Cabo Matapalo. Located in the small town of Cabo Matapalo at the southern tip of Costa Rica. The hotel features accommodations up to 18 guests inside the main house, bunkhouse, and cabanas. This 3,400 sq meter property features its own tropical gardens, nature trails, and rainforest jungle with wildlife like the scarlet macaw and the howler monkey. This property also features a private yoga platform and exclusive beach access. It would be a great investment for a small beach hotel or a bed and breakfast. It offers a secluded retreat for you and your guests. All of the buildings include secure wood and cement construction with an abundance of fruit trees and tropical plants around them. This is an area of Costa Rica that has been untouched so you'll get to experience the true beauty of the lush rainforests and the world-class ocean waves.
