Property Description

Amazing home and guest house perched on top of a mountain with absolutely stunning ocean and Whale's Tail views from one side and epic mountain and valley views from the other. Truly unique property with rare views of both Pacific Ocean and interior mountain ranges and valleys with consistent cross breezes day and night. Located about 8 minutes to the town and amenities of Uvita and 12 to 15 minutes to various beaches including the Marino Ballena National Park with the famous Whale's Tail formation. Main House The main house has that sought after "WOW FACTOR" as you enter into the expansive living room and kitchen with extra high ceilings and accordion glass doors completely folding away on both sides of the home to create indoor/outdoor luxury living. This open concept kitchen, living and indoor dining room flow to the outside terrace where the famous Whale's Tail formation extends from the miles of coastline view directly in front of the infinity edge pool.
