Property Description

It's rare to find it all, and priced to sell ! This brand new listing to the market has everything you need to start the Pura Vida life and grow with the property. Just minutes up a well maintained road from the growing town of Uvita and you have reached your new home with beautiful ocean view and huge trees that attract Costa Rica's wildlife. The cool ocean and mountain breezes paired with the 1000+ feet elevation mean that air conditioning is not needed. You will never sleep better than on this "end of the road" property with no traffic! You and your guests will have all the privacy you need. Uvita and the whales Coast (Costa Ballena) has been the best kept secret in Costa Rican real estate for many years. Undiscovered, with large parcels of land, with barely another neighbor in sight. While the community has now grown, careful consideration has been taken to insure this lot keeps its privacy and views.
