Property Description

Boutique Eco lodge perched up on a ridge directly above the Pacific overlooking the rainforest canopy offering the absolute best view of all time! 2 acres of land with 4 comfortable cabins a 2 story main house, rancho and pool, with the best view overlooking the canopy of the rainforest being offered for sale for the first time! This hotel was built in 1992 by world travelers that settled for the first time along the south Pacific of Costa Rica, and cherry picked the best spot along the lush tropical rainforest mountain side just above the Bay of Dominicalito, and the rugged Costa Ballena to the south. When you think of Costa Rica, and the close encounters with nature and wildlife, along with the dramatic setting and views, this place offers just that, and probably much more than you expected! Plenty of room to expand and increase revenues if one so desired. Looking for a unique investment opportunity that allows you to enjoy the laid back lifestyle, while meeting great people from all over the world, and generating a nice income, well it does not get better than this, do not miss out on this once in a life time opportunity to be the owner of one of the most dramatic boutique eco resorts world wide!
