Property Description

New to market, charming property located within walking distance to beautiful waterfalls and the growing town center of Uvita. This gem offers outstanding privacy in a completely remodeled home featuring a creative design which integrates open living spaces surrounded by beautiful fruit producing organic gardens. Property exemplifies ease of access and simple living in true Pura Vida. The property is located about 1 km from the main highway through Uvita and most of the access road to the property was recently paved making access simple an accessible year round with a 2wd vehicle. Or walk just 5 minutes from the property and arrive at a bamboo forest and Rio Uivta. Upon entering the private gate you will be greeted by abundant fruit trees and perfectly manicured gardens and pathways. The home was 100% remodeled and features an open outdoor kitchen and dining room which could easily be enclosed or screened in.
