Property Description

This property is the investment property you have always dreamed of owning! Set in the heart of Manuel Antonio, this dramatic Balinese-inspired home brings in all the magic of tropical architecture with a fusion of organic materials, luxury, integration of the rainforest canopy and the living spaces, and use of the cascading topography such a part of this area's character. The home is a POWERHOUSE rental property and is being sold with a solid lease in place which provides a passive income to the owners of $6500 per month. The tenant is running a short-term rental in the property and manages all elements of the home, pays all maintenance, utilities, and services. There are 4 years left on the current lease making this an IDEAL Property for an investor looking to generate a solid ROI on investment with the opportunity for increased use or renegotiation when the current lease expires to allow for more personal use or ongoing direct long term leases.
