Property Description

Casita Bamboo is an ideal vacation home and more. The home is a stunning huge one bedroom, open living area, dining and kitchen. Perched high and looks over the most incredible views of the Parrita Valley, and Parrita river as Manuel Antonio sits in the backdrop of paradise. The architecture design is beautiful and suits the region perfectly. As you look out to the view you can also open the floor to ceiling sliding windows to let the glorious ocean breeze in. In the back of the house is a giant Florida room where you can relax and read a book or just watch nature happen. The bathroom is state of art with an indoor-outdoor shower. All details were thought out as the final touches were put in the home - this is a must-see for more reasons than one. Beautiful woodwork and furniture - absolutely turn-key with a great rental record. Casita Bamboo sits on almost 2 acres of land within a gated community that is basically the whole mountain.
