Property Description

If you thought that the idea of owning a brand new luxury home in Costa Rica was too expensive, think again. This brand new home features very high quality finishes, including natural stone countertops, amazing polished floors, custom made kitchen cabinets and vanities, a huge custom pool, an inviting outdoor living space, and it even comes furnished. To find a home of this quality, at this price, with this privileged location is not impossible, but it is a rare find indeed. From the moment you arrive at your new home, you will feel an enormous sense of pride. The access to the home is controlled by an attractive and impressive ornamental gate which offers privacy and security. As your automatic gate glides open, you will be captivated by the stately covered parking area, the lush landscaping and garden area, and the amazing pool. The large wooden entry door is a wonderful and splendid ingress to this amazing home.
