Property Description

Easy access up the Cinco Ventanas Road, minutes from the coastal highway, beaches, and the village of Ojochal, famous for its delightful culinary restaurants. Beautiful ocean views of Isla Garza, the river mouth of Rio Terraba (Central America's longest river) as it joins the Pacific Ocean. Views of Cano Island, a national park located 12 miles off shore, a renowned scuba diver and snorkeler's underwater paradise. Bordered by a year round river, with your own private, maintained trail. Meander down this short, easy hike to your own refreshing waterhole! If this doesn't interest you the large, Tiled swimming pool will be sure to peak your interest. Do you like monkeys? Toucans? Parrots? Almost every morning you will awaken with the sunrise and the expressive Howler Monkeys with their distinctive sounds. The howlers travel back and forth usually returning in the evening. In the afternoon the white-faced monkeys usually sneak in.
