Property Description

This is a unique ocean view property....a spacious 3 bedroom semi-detached house, half of a duplex, located within a condo community inside a secure development in the mountains of Ojochal. If you are looking for a turn-key vacation home or rental property with ocean views - this is it! Completely renovated in 2017, and featuring brand new furnishings and artwork selected by an interior designer, this place is tastefully decorated throughout. All new landscaping, a courtyard with exterior lighting and new pool rancho compliment the private outdoor living space which features a tiled pool, a covered terrace on the ground level and large balcony above. The main floor open-concept living room and dining room flow outdoors through several sets of patio doors directly to the covered terrace and pool area. The kitchen features granite counters, a breakfast bar, an ocean view eating area and plenty of beautiful cabinets including a large pantry and several large drawers for pots & pans.
