Property Description

This lovely home was originally priced at $525K and is now $460K. Bring all reasonable offers including those that will need owner financing. This is a wonderful secure home just a few minutes from the center of Tamarindo. It enjoys quiet tranquility with lovely mountain views. This is one of the few homes that enjoys a full two car garage with extra space. Next to the garage is the main entry to the property where you will walk through immaculate gardens to reach the front door as you also pass an enormous rooftop deck over the garage that could easily be converted to an apartment for friends or a caretaker. Apart from this marvelous home the property also has three small efficiency apartments that mainly rent long term. There are three bedrooms in the home. Two of them enjoy an ensuite bathroom. The master bedroom is ample in size and has an enormous walk in closet. The third is great size for anyone in the family.
