Property Description

Enjoy Costa Rica luxury mountain living in this home in San Isidro. Built to the highest international standards using the finest materials from Costa Rica, the US and Europe, the home is only 5 minutes from the center of town, yet is totally private and secure. The house is designed for entertaining, or just enjoying the privacy of the 1.2 acre landscaped grounds with gardens and an orchard surrounding the house. The front of the house features custom built wrought iron folding doors that open up to an incredible view of the valley and city below. The living room opens out onto the vanishing edge pool with a sunken pool bar. A six person Jacuzzi provides a relaxing retreat in the cool evenings. The professional gourmet kitchen features a Viking stove with two ovens, 4 burners, a gas grill, and a griddle. The kitchen is equipped with granite countertops, double sink, and an island with a full bar and separate prep sink.
