Property Description

Toucans, hummingbirds, and butterflies are daily visitors to this garden paradise in the growing town of Ojochal. With almost a full acre of land in town this gated and fenced property offers privacy with the opportunity to enjoy life in Costa Rica with some income. Each of the four newly updated cabins has it's own kitchenette, bed area, full bath with shower, new AC units and room to relax. With plenty of room to expand you can opt for building an additional house for yourself, or live in the largest cabin with separate bedroom and full indoor living room with a large spacious patio, a total of 800 sq ft under roof, with the remaining three cabins to generate an income to sustain a comfortable lifestyle in paradise. Shared spaces for guests include the large rancho by the pool where guests can relax and gather for dinner at the bar and dining area. The full kitchen with a new six-burner gas stove has everything we else you need to prepare a delicious breakfast for travelers and friends.
