Property Description

This rustic little cabin in Ballena has delightful panoramic views of the Pacific, Cano Island, Tres Hermanas rocks and the Osa Peninsula. Located in the foothills of the Cordillera de Talamanca mountain range, which lines the incredible Pacific shoreline of the Costa Ballena. From any spot on this property, the sweeping bird's eye view of the jungle valley meeting the coast is enough to take your breath away. A little getaway from your usual day-to-day living, this studio cabin is within reach of the most budget-conscious investor and is located a short distance from the town of Uvita. With room for expansion, the cabin is positioned on the slope with an additional area available to add a pool. The studio layout is highly functional and there is a large covered deck out front from which to really enjoy the views including sunsets nearly year-round. Make the journey up here to this affordable property! I assure you that you won't be disappointed by what you see from these heights! The property is located in a gated community not far off the highway, 4X4 vehicle is required.
