Property Description

Casa Vidore is a magnificent home which fuses impeccable design, tasteful decor, tranquil setting nearly bordering Manuel Antonio Park and absolute convenience in the heart of this majestic destination. The three level home is situated in a quaint community of residences called Colina Monito, or "hill of the small monkeys" and the name couldn't be more descriptive. This unique area of Manuel Antonio is just minutes from all the restaurants, amenities and services of the region, but is tucked away in a private area with a hill top providing cooling breezes all day and all night and bustling with wildlife due to its location away from all of the tourists and hotels of the region. The house has just been completely rebuilt and renovated and offers up three levels of world class design and decor. The owners have spared no expense nor cut any corners in their attention to detail. Main residence is a spacious two level floor plan with an enormous open floor plan with living, dining and breakfast areas which spill onto the spacious pool and terrace.
