Property Description

Enjoy the endless splendor of sunsets from your beautiful patio, infinity pool, or expansive living room. If you want to see the magnificent colors of the sun setting over the Pacific from your property, this is the luxury ocean view home you have been looking for! This stylish two-story home is perfect for those who want to enjoy life in Costa Rica without sparing on comfort. From the perfectly appointed kitchen with high-end appliances, to the remote controlled patio screen shades – this house was designed for a life of luxury and comfort with many fabulous details added throughout. Lavish Interior Design Enter this exquisite three-bedroom home through the outstanding front entry doors, which feature a smoked glass etched design of Costa Rica's famed "Mano de Tigre" leaves. Host your friends and family in the spacious first-floor guest room with a full ensuite bathroom. This space is so ample that it could also be used as the master if you prefer to sleep on the ground floor.
