Property Description

Welcome to paradise. Welcome to Castillo Del Sol. This Mediterranean style estate property is, in a word, stunning. Situated on approximately 10 acres of private, lush yet well-manicured terrain, Castillo Del Sol is an absolute masterpiece. The grounds are accessible only through an ornamental iron gate which offers ultimate privacy and security. The double-wide concrete drive meanders past the manager's home and beyond the private helipad to the impressive entrance of the main home. The large circular driveway offers easy access to the 3-bay garage, and to the artfully grand entrance to the estate. The entry doorway is framed in tall, custom, iron doors which lead into the high open-air corridors which separate the two wings of the home. These rich hallways are professionally acid stained concrete and ordained with tropical plants, river stone, accent lighting, and natural art pieces that will leave your guests in awe.
