Property Description

Are you looking for investment property in the southern zone of Costa Rica where you can live on it, create an income and be able to build more or grow your business in the future? This is exactly what this real estate property is offering you. Located in the town of Bahia on the main entrance of the National Park Marino Ballena that attracts thousands of tourists every month, at this location you will have access to all the amenities within less than 5 minutes walking distance. The two newly remodeled apartments are sitting on a 872 sq.m lot with a 20 meter long drive way from the main road creating more privacy on this property for you and your clients, yet with the benefits of being on a public road. The two units are identical, a small out door terrace that opens up to the living room with big sliding glass windows, sofa and 50" TV to entertain everyone in the apartment, the modern white quartz counter tops and the black stain kitchen cabinets look fantastic.
