Property Description

This home was wonderfully designed for open concept living. The high vaulted ceilings allow for natural light in every room. The kitchen is equipped with modern appliances, custom high cabinets, and beautiful stone counters. Both bedrooms have private double sink ensuites. The front facing master has a private garden terrace, and the rear facing master has private access to the outside terrace and pool. The pool is concrete and tiled for low maintenance and durability, and the adjoining terrace is covered to provide protection from both the tropical sun, and the rain. The home was designed with impressive main doors, secondary access through the laundry room, and large glass sliding doors to the backyard and pool area. Priced to move quickly, this custom home is located in the privileged new community of Jardines Del Sol. Easy walking access to all amenities including schools, restaurants, bars, grocery stores, doctors, pharmacies, and the local farmers market make this home the perfect vacation home for those looking to relocate to Costa Rica, or the savvy investor looking for strong rental income.
