Property Description

Completely renovated from top to bottom, this custom designed ocean view estate has everything you could ever want for living your best life in Costa Rica. Blending the best of indoor and outdoor living, this thoughtfully-designed custom home has been developed with ease, enjoyment, and entertaining in mind. Uniquely set into the Uvita mountains, this stunning gem has a wonderfully picturesque view of the ocean that is lovingly framed in with mature jungle trees and a winding river below. The property itself has you feeling like you are in a completely remote location while at the same time is located only a few minutes from the center of Uvita proper. Truly the best of both worlds in this highly-desired area. The property consists of a primary two bedroom, 2.5 bath home with a main covered outdoor kitchen and open dining area, two comfortable outdoor living room areas, one elevated upper entertaining space with custom pull out for extra sleeping, additional kitchenette, and utility room with full laundry set.
