Property Description

Sitting poolside at this thoughtfully designed home, the potential different uses for the property are easy to imagine. Originally built to comfortably host his large family, and strictly for entertainment ease, it is clear the owner did an excellent job. The flow from the kitchen, along the pool, hearing its numerous small waterfalls, into the massive outdoor recreational area is seamless. This rec area has a pizza oven, a twelve-burner stove, ovens below, a commercial grill, a refrigerator, and an eighteen-foot local hardwood table. A pool table, darts, and many other games are spaced throughout his awesome space. Continuing down the pool's side you see the bespoke stone fire circle, where many great stories and s'mores will take place. This is next to the workout area which will include various workout machines. Going down a slight slope on a well-built concrete path, you have a large fenced area perfect for the chickens! Once a small pony called it home.
