Property Description

Just minutes away from restaurants, beaches and shopping, yet privately located near the end of the 2-wheel drive road in a quiet area of Ojochal, passing through the electronically controlled gate, you will find this 4+ acre rainforest estate which is a nature-lovers paradise. What truly sets this property apart from all others, is the brand new modern construction with posh furnishings and finishes, on a property that is lush, and richly landscaped with mature native tropical plants. A creek borders one side of the property, then winds and crosses through the back portion of the acreage. Accessed via internal grass-covered roads, you can explore the entirely usable land, including one large flat area, and several other slightly sloped areas affording the possibility of additional construction sites or permaculture and orchards. We have done our best with the photos and virtual tour video, to give you a taste of what's in store, however you must see for yourself, to really take it all in and be able to appreciate this incredibly manicured park-like property.
