Property Description

If tranquility is the setting you seek, this is the place, in the foothills of the Cordillera de Talamanca mountain range, which lines the incredible Pacific shoreline of the Costa Ballena. The gently rolling hills feature several towering Guanacaste trees, a stunning green valley, and mountain views, with a distant view of the ocean. The splendor of the views is all-encompassing. This property is located in a gated development called "The Sanctuary", a perfectly befitting name for this community of 10 estate properties. The property is nearly 7 acres, with natural construction sites and 2 separate entrances. Located just 5 minutes from the Cortes Hospital and 15 minutes from restaurants and shopping, 4X4 vehicle required. This property proves it is possible to have a tranquil location with stunning views yet close access to beaches and amenities. The larger building site is clear with an incredible panoramic mountain view and a distant ocean view is preserved for the construction of a primary residence and pool.
