Property Description

High above Uvita, in the highly desired Bejuco neighbourhood, quietly tucked away in nature at the end of a secluded street you will find this genuinely unique home offering total privacy: no neighbours, no loud parties, no cars, and no dust! The view is simply outstanding, enchanting you with stunning year-round sunsets. The house overlooks the Marina Ballena National Park and the world famous Whale's Tail sandbar formation. It is truly a "WOW-FACTOR" home! This distinctive home, rewarded for its remarkable and exemplary tropical design, is a gem which sticks out of the lush jungle and surrounded by many impressive mature trees. The house is often referred to as a true piece of art and is destined to serve as a reference in modern tropical house design. Truly an open concept home, you will be refreshed by constant ocean AND mountain breezes, with no need to flip on the existing cooling fans.
