Property Description

This beautiful estate can be found off an easy access street in a highly coveted neighborhood along the first ridge in Ojochal. Open Plan Living at its Best... Over 90+ ft. in length, designed and positioned to give maximum air flow by doors & windows which are fully screened and opposite of one another, the ocean breezes alone cool this home delightfully. An open-air Courtyard surrounded by black iron fencing plus a single gate and double entrance gates custom designed to match the garage's decorative side panels. Front Double Cedar doors feature stained glass insets of Setting Sun, Moon, and Stars. This home is located 1 house from the corner of Calle Soluna and Calle Estrella (sun, moon, and stars). Immediately upon entrance there is a view of the Ocean, and Bromeliad Garden through the waterfall window. Famous Cano Island is to the right of the center sandbar view. The double French doors off the center of the villa lead directly onto the approximate 600 sq.
