Property Description

Mountain and Ocean View Estate with Guest House and Fruit Orchards Conveniently situated halfway between San Isidro and Dominical Beach, this spacious estate offers mature fruit orchards and tranquil creek frontage. Enjoy quick and easy access, 5 minutes down a gravel road from the main highway. Cool breezes and a fresh climate are what you can expect at an elevation of 1,600 ft above sea level. Quietly situated near the end of a gated easement road, this offering boasts excellent privacy as well. Enjoy majestic views of virgin forest and mountains with a picturesque window between the peaks to the Pacific Ocean. This is one of a kind of property in the Costa Rican countryside. Mature established landscaping adorns the entirety of the property. ICE electrical service and ASADA water from Las Tumbas are already connected. A scenically carved path through the forest lends easy access to a strong flowing creek which provides multiple swimming holes and a source of natural water year-round.
