Property Description

A gently sloped shaded driveway brings you to this sumptuous 1.6 hectare (4 acre) lot with stunning views of the peaceful Pacific Ocean, the deep green jungle canopy, the Ojochal mountains that jut out suddenly, and rich, colorful sunsets. The large and flat building site of approximately 800 m² allows the construction of a substantial home plus a guest house. This beautiful space offers plenty of room for a swimming pool, a flower garden, and lots of fruit trees. The forest below is on the same property, which ensures privacy, view security, and a magnificent panorama over the days and seasons, especially during the season of the resplendent yellow flowering “Arboles de Mayo” (May Trees). This convenient location within the village of Ojochal is ideal and sought after because it is near to shops, restaurants, and beaches. The giant cliffs at Playa Tortuga are visible from the lot less than three km away.
