Property Description

This property is located in the foothills of an area called Cerros which is a 20-minute scenic drive through the African Palm fields and through a couple of typical Costa Rican Palma farming neighborhoods. Once you enter the property through the gate you get that instant peaceful country feel like you have just arrived in Paradise. The driveway opens up to a very beautifully manicured garden on either side. There is a road that circles the entire 6.88-acre land with a harvestable teak forest in the middle of it. All throughout the property, you will find beautifully manicured garden areas with all sorts of colorful plants and flowers as well as fruit trees such as mangos, lemons, limes, and avocados just to mention a few of them. The main house has three bedrooms and two bathrooms a nice large open space living room dining and kitchen. Adjacent there is a nice size pantry/laundry room. This home has a very welcome home feel with a lot of decorative wood furniture made from the teak trees on the very same property.
